BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that as the Nandi Hill Hotel arrangements have not been possible to carry out and a supply of stores has to be kept departmentally, a license for the sale of beer & liquors to visitors is essential and requests that a license may be given free of charge in order that the prices may be kept at a reasonable figure.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1. The request is for the issue of a license free of fee for the sale of beer and liquors to ~~visitors~~ to visitors on the Nandi Hill. It is not clear if both country and foreign liquors are sold. In the case of the former, the question of the payment of duty also comes in. Perhaps the intention is that the item has not to be foregone, though under sec 17 of the Excise Regn such a payment may be exempted.

2. Under secs 16 and 24 of the same Regn, Govt may grant to any person under such conditions as may be decided upon the power of selling liquor by retail, provided a license is taken in that behalf from the Dy Comnr. As this license has to be given only as a concession the sale should be under strict control, so that there may not be any unfair dealings, thus leading to abnormal consumption due to smuggling.

3. Perhaps a free license as desired by the Supdt may be given as an experimental measure for a limited period.

4. May the Excise Comnr be consulted unofficially, if necessary, as to the feasibility

	6. Recd 7.30 pm 19.4.15 Rel. Dresser gallas 1914 I presume that what Mr Krumbiegel wants is the able to run a sort of "Stores" on the Nandi Hills for the benefit & convenience of all bona-fide visitors both. I further presume that he does not contemplate having any "Bar" or "Refreshment Room" arrangement connection with it. In other words, what is wanted is permission to sell bottled liquor, not to be drunk on the premises. From the type of visitors, which are likely and calculated to form the bulk if not all of the visitors, it may be safely presumed that the liquor in demand will be of the foreign liquor & not the Country variety, though it is just possible that Country Brewed Beer may be in demand all circumstances considered together, it seems to me that if a license (Foreign liquors) in form 7.8 is taken out, it will meet the requirements of the case. The fee for such a license is Rs 60 per annum, and the Govt may, if it so pleases, order its grant, free of charge. This the Excise Law as it stands, does not contemplate any occasion for such arising. The sale should be strictly restricted to Bona fide visitors to the Hills only & none others. In other words, the general conditions of 7.8 license would apply equally well in this case also. We may opinion the imposition of any special conditions are neither called for nor necessary.
